

A cozy, first class waterfront hotel, Boardwalk Inn is the centerpiece of the Kemah Boardwalk development, which sits just south of Houston on Clear Lake and offers 40-acres of dining and entertainment.

The Boardwalk Inn features 52 rooms, including four luxury suites, each with waterfront views, custom interiors and a balcony overlooking Kemah Boardwalk's plaza, restaurants and amusements. Offering on-site entertainment from fine dining to live music to amusement rides and boat rides, Boardwalk Inn is a dynamic location for any type of visit.

All of the classically appointed nautical guestrooms feature king or double-size beds, oversized desks and occasional chairs with ottomans. The luxury suites offer kitchenettes, a separate living and dining room, and adjoining king bedrooms.

An executive boardroom and ballroom are located on the third floor, and provide the ideal setting for corporate meetings or special gatherings up to 100. Aquarium Restaurant, known for its one-of-a-kind underwater dining experience, also offers meeting space, as do several other restaurants on the property.

INSPIRING MEETING FACILITIES AND ACCOMMODATIONS

Conveniently located across the street from Minute Maid Park, home of the Houston Astros, and steps from Houston's bustling central business district, Inn at the Ballpark is a luxury boutique hotel that subtly and elegantly brings the world of baseball into each of its 201 rooms. From the hotel's Ballpark Café and Ballpark Bar to the artwork lining the halls, America's favorite pastime is handsomely woven into every aspect of the guest experience. An atrium lobby with a sophisticated, urban feel is the centerpiece of the first floor of the hotel, which also offers 12 spacious suites, a fitness center, gift shop, business center, and 24-hour in-room dining, along with many other distinctive amenities.

Inn at the Ballpark offers four well-designed private rooms and one permanently set boardroom for banquet and meeting needs, all equipped with state-of-the-art audiovisual services. In addition to the nearly 5,000 square-feet of meeting space on-site, Inn at the Ballpark also partners with nationally acclaimed steakhouse Vic & Anthony's, which sits adjacent to the hotel. Vic & Anthony's offers three private meeting rooms, including the Board Room, with luxurious leather walls, and the Wine Room, which also serves as the home of the restaurant's award-winning wine collection. Downtown Aquarium, located blocks away in the heart of Houston's Theater District, is also a partner of Inn at the Ballpark, and provides unique meeting space, including a magnificent 6,000 square-foot ballroom with an incomparable view of the downtown skyline, to Inn at the Ballpark guests.

Gulf Coast Meetings

Consistently honored with the AAA Four Diamond Award® since 1999, The San Luis Hotel, Spa & Conference Center is at the heart of the Texas Gulf Coast's most elegant beachfront resort, featuring the finest in hospitality, dining, entertainment, and meeting and convention facilities. Stretching from 50th to 57th streets along Seawall Boulevard, the 30-acre San Luis Resort offers beautiful, unobstructed views of the Gulf of Mexico. The resort is home to The San Luis Hotel, Hilton Galveston Island, Holiday Inn on the Beach, The San Luis Condominiums, The Rainforest Cafe, Retail Village & River Adventure Ride and the Galveston Island Convention Center at The San Luis Resort, along with eight outstanding restaurants including the AAA Four Diamond® award-winning Steakhouse restaurant.

This 700-guestroom resort, with three diverse hotel options and nearly 200,000 square-feet of meeting space on the grounds, has something for everyone and every meeting.

HOTELS

The crown jewel of the property is the 16-story San Luis Hotel. Each of its 250 guestrooms is complete with a private balcony and a spectacular view of the Gulf. The San Luis Hotel also offers an elegantly appointed spa; Aveda™ salon and fitness facility; Style San Luis, a designer boutique; and Galveston Island's most decadent pool, with lush landscaping, a mammoth waterfall and a palapa bar that creates the feel of a tropical getaway oasis.

The Hilton Galveston Island offers first-class comforts, including deluxe Gulf-view rooms with designer furnishings and private balconies. The hotel features an elegantly tropical theme with rich hues of corals, greens and golds. The 250 guestrooms and suites are reminiscent of a cozy beach home, with beautiful tropical plants, cascading window valences in a seaside-inspired print and stone-accented bathrooms. Other amenities include an outdoor swimming pool complete with a tropical swim-up bar, fitness room and Jacuzzi.

The Holiday Inn on the Beach anchors the east side of the San Luis Resort. The hotel has recently received a host of renovations, including exterior painting and stonework, landscaping, room upgrades and enhancements, restaurant décor changes and a new poolside fitness center.

MEETINGS AND ACTIVITIES

In addition to one-of-a-kind dining and entertainment on the grounds of The San Luis Resort, Galveston Island is bustling with activities for convention-goers. Along The Strand, visitors wander through a collection of galleries and studios, restaurants and shops or visit the wooden decks of the tall ship Elissa, the period dining and Pullman coaches at the Railroad Museum and the Grand 1894 Opera House.

Guests can arrange special golf outings and deep sea fishing excursions around Galveston. For those who enjoy basking in the sun, taking a swim or strolling leisurely along the water, the beach is across from the resort on Seawall Boulevard.

The San Luis Resort offers meeting space in each of its three hotels, as well as the 140,000 square-foot Galveston Island Convention Center at The San Luis Resort. This multi-level, multi-function convention center provides a column-free 43,100 square-foot exhibition hall, a 15,500 square-foot grand ballroom, 12,000 square feet of breakout meeting space and 29,000 square-feet of pre-function, exhibit and reception space. Two-story floor-to-ceiling windows offer unparalleled views of the Gulf as guests enter and exit the first floor exhibition space and second level ballroom.

Also at the resort, The San Luis Hotel, Spa & Conference Center offers a 40,000 square-foot IACC Conference Center, while the Hilton Galveston Island provides a more intimate meeting setting with its four meeting spaces on the ground level. The Holiday Inn on the Beach offers seven function facilities for groups up to 250 and banquets from 10 to 175.

GETTING THERE

Galveston Island is an easy-to-reach destination less than an hour's drive from Houston, three hours from Austin and five from the Dallas/Ft. Worth area.

Transportation directly to the resort is available from both Houston airports with advance reservations. The resort is conveniently located minutes from Galveston's Scholes Field and Interstate 45.

Special promotional rates and packages are available year round, as Galveston's temperate fall and winter weather allow for seaside meetings beyond the traditional summer and springtime months. Packages include guestrooms designed with the business traveler in mind, breakfast, lunch and dinner, continuous refreshment breaks, meeting room set-up, standard audio-visual equipment and conference supplies. The resort's on-site professional conference planning department is available to coordinate and assist with recreational activities, dining options and meeting needs.
